

Buckingham

Wheat harvest is about ended and no one ever saw more perfect weather for the work. Some crops ripened in spots and men could not hire labor to help them just spent a good part of the week cutting with their cradles until they saved it.

Mr. Charles Rosen had his tractor hitched to his binder to cut wheat. Some farmers cut with the old style dropper, and yet others had reaping attachments to their mowers. Some hands got $3 a day for cutting with the cradles, but not many were paid that much.

Mr. W. T. Snoddy has a tractor to pull his threshing machine.

G. W. Newton & Son will run a new threshing machine. Misses Gladys and Miss Mary Haskins leave to day for Farmville to attend the Summer Normal.

All the leading mail order houses are out with special catalogues giving new and greatly reduced prices on many lines of goods.

Building activities have been resumed to some extent here, and for the first time in many years saw mill men are hauling timber to private citizens.

Mr. T. B. Hall is going to add to his house.

Mr. Fitzpatrick is buying some lumber to build or repair. The farmers had a meeting here on Saturday with a basket dinner and there was a large crowd in attendance.

Mr. E. N. Grigg has been a great sufferer with his broken leg and it seems as if he will have to lie abed for some weeks yet.

Housewives will not be overworked during this season unless they can get vegetables and sugar with hardly advance in price about preserving time. One mail order house offers best cane sugar at 5 cents a pound and rice at 4 and nine tenths cents a pound and the same house offers preserved strawberries at 15 cents a pound. I predict that next year will be one of the earliest times for certain things that we have known for a long time and then people will awaken to the situation and go to work and then things will become normal and times will be good.

An enterprising colored man after working all day here has been going after night fall to get fresh fish out of the small streams and he came in the other morning with eight pounds he had taken. He gets in the water with a light and a gig and he takes in all kind of fish and eels.

We had the first rain of any consequence which began falling here last Saturday evening just as wheat harvest was ended.

Misses Nannie and Virginia Ellis and Miss Virginia Sadtler are among the Buckingham ladies who complete attending the summer normal at the University of Virginia.

Mr. F. W. Chilcote took his daughter to Richmond on a business trip last week.

I never saw the like of yellow butter, fresh eggs and frying sized chickens as we have and I have four of the best cooks in the State and I need most eat to live rather than live to eat.

Someone would make money by opening an ice cream saloon here this summer.

Lemons are selling for 50 cents a dozen and merchants say they are $12 a box.

I reckon June apples would taste mighty good now, but we will have to taste them another year.

A very attractive young lady is expected here soon from North Carolina, and expects to visit Miss Roy Rogers, Mrs. B. H. Huggins and Mr. C. D. Eubank, now boys get your cars ready if you want to have a good time.

Some people just can't accustom themselves to the change in the price of things. I wanted a little calf to put on a cow and people priced them to me at more than Richmond prices, but I finally found one at a price of $5, though I have bought many better ones at $3 each.

Miners who have gone to the coal fields of W. Va. report work plentiful and pay good.

Mr. Strawburg has been doing some fine work with the county's tractor and road machine.

The marriage of Miss Elsie Mae Morgan to Mr. J. Kirk Morginson was quietly solemnized on Wednesday, June 15, 1921, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Morgan, of Andersonville, Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Gordon of Vera, pastor to the groom, in the presence of many relatives and friends who gathered to extend congratulations and bid Godspeed to the happy couple.

Immediately following the marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Morginson left for a tour to Richmond, Newport News and Norfolk.

Mrs. Morginson who is prominently connected with both Appomattox and Buckingham is very popular. For the past two or three years, she has been successfully engaged in teaching and wherever she has taught she has been a favorite.

Mr. Morginson is widely known in Southside Virginia. He is a successful business man and takes an active part in civic and religious matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Morginson will be at home, near Vera, after July 1st.

Evergreen

We have had a good rain and we hope the farmers could finish planting tobacco. Gardners are looking fine so late and away the blues.

Despite the threatening weather Sunday Rev. T. J. Ragland filled his appointment at Rocks and reported a very good congregation.

Our people are delighted to have Dr. E. E. Walker and family back, we missed them so much while they were in W. Va.

Mrs. John Hatch and two little sons, of Disputants, are visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McDearmon have returned from a pleasant visit to Portsmouth, Texas, and their daughter, Miss Mildred, who has been attending school there accompanied them home. They also attended the graduating exercises at Randolph Macon, where their daughter, Miss Frances, was a graduate.

We are sorry to hear of the serious illness of Mr. Sam Franklin at Pamplin. His death is expected at any time. The old soldiers are fast passing away.

Mr. J. R. Conner who has been on the sick list is improving.

Mr. Sam Staples who is working in Roskoche was the guest of his wife and little son Sunday.

Mrs. T. S. Day

Mrs. Sidney A. Day, wife of Chas. S. Day, died at her home in Buckingham county on Friday, June 17th, in the 75th year of her age.

Burial services were conducted Sunday by Rev. J. H. Harris and interment made in the Lewis family burying ground, where a large crowd of relatives and friends gathered to pay their last tribute of respect.

Mrs. Day was a member of Union Baptist church from early childhood and was a good christian woman, beloved by all who knew her.

She leaves to mourn their loss husband, T. S. Day, two children, L. R. Day, Roanoke, and one sister, Mrs. Casado Haskins, of Buckingham.

Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved ones.

E. R. Collins Killed

Edward R. Collins was fatally injured Monday morning while at work on a bridge at Torrington, Conn., where he was acting as a superintendent of the American Bridge Company, according to information received by his wife, Mrs. Ella Collins.

Mr. Collins was a native of Appomattox county, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Collins, who with the following brothers and sisters survive: George and Andrew Collins, who are engaged on government railroad construction in Alaska; William Collins, of Roanoke; Samuel Collins, who is with the American Bridge Company; Thomas Collins, of Appomattox county, and Mrs. Annie Babcock, of Appomattox.

Mr. Collins, in addition to his wife, is survived by five children, the youngest of whom is just six weeks old and whom the father had never seen.

Mr. Collins was 45 years old and had been with the American Bridge Company for 20 years.

Mrs. W. G. Bates and children are visiting in Danville.

Mrs. Martha C. Bryant

Saturday the death angel visited the home of Mr. Thomas Bryant near Toga, and took away into the great beyond the spirit of his beloved wife, Mrs. Martha Chidester Bryant.

Mrs. Bryant was in the twenty second year of her age and at the time of her death had been married only one year and two days. She was sick for a little more than a week. All that tender hands and medical skill could do for her proved of no avail. God knew best and He in His infinite wisdom called her home. She was a very estimable woman and will be greatly missed in her community. She had been a member of Pleasant Grove Baptist church since she was twelve years old.

Mrs. Bryant's remains were laid to rest in the family cemetery Monday p. m. in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and friends. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Harris and the floral tributes were many and beautiful.

There are left to mourn their loss the husband, two brothers Horace and Duke Chidester and her mother, Mrs. Mattie Chidester. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to these bereaved ones and pray that they may realize that though in a way we do not understand "He doeth all things well." X.

Obituary

In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. Kate Carter, who died one year ago to-day, June 20th, 1921.

But one year ago today dear mother, you left us for a better home on high. We will miss you, but we know that the years to you, seem days to us today.

Our home has never been the same dear mother. Still we try to struggle on. With hand to help and heart to serve. Ever remembering the love of the one that's gone.

Sometimes the way seems long and hard, And our grief almost seems as though. Then come one still lingering hope. God's own promise, "We will understand." REX DAUGHTER.

M. F. Davidson, Special Officer

To Whom it May Concern: I have been appointed, with out my solicitation, Special Policeman for the county of Appomattox, except within the corporate limits of the town of Pamplin, and have duly qualified and given bond for the faithful performance of the duties of the office. I shall endeavor to enforce all the laws within the province of my office and within my jurisdiction, faithfully, impartially, and with firmness, and will do so humbly, and will appreciate the co-operation of all of the citizens of the county in doing so.

Whenever I fail to do my duty, it is my disposition to tender my resignation to the source from whence it came. Most respectfully, M. F. Davidson.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in the last few years. That is Catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Remedy, which acts through the blood on the mucous surface of the Catarrh thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The Catarrh Remedy is the only cure in the curative power of Hall's Catarrh Remedy that they offer. One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F.
